HISTORY

Established in 2004, ACE focused initially in the removal and/or installation of Aboveground Storage Tanks (AST), the removal and/or abandonment of Underground Storage Tanks (UST), Tank Compliance, Testing/Compliance of Leak Detection Systems, Tank Cleaning, Oil/Water Separator Cleaning and Site Remediation. These services now represent a major portion of the revenue generated annually.

A year later in October of 2005, ACE expanded to offer Vacuum Truck and Vactor services along with twenty-four (24) hour emergency response. The Emergency Response services include emergency response to spills, accidental releases of pollutants, and other related occurrences. To control and mitigate these emergencies, Ace employs an array of containment, abatement, recovery and/or neutralization measures necessary to control any type of emergency. In addition to controlling the emergency, ACE also provides the means necessary to sample, containerize, remove, and dispose of any contaminants and/or neutralizing agents. Nearly a decade later in 2014, ACE introduced Roll-off Services, as well as Hazardous and Non-hazardous Waste disposal and transportation services. Lastly, in 2017, ACE introduced its very own Storm Water division to respond to the increasing demand for storm water maintenance and inspections.

ABOUT US

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
